2. INTRODUCTION

This Manual is published in terms of Section 51 of PAIA which in its amended form, subsequent to POPI coming into force and effect requires certain information in relation to POPI to be included, and to give effect to the provisions of Section 32 and 14 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa (“the Constitution”) respectively. Section 32 of the Constitution provides for the right of access to information held by a person that is required for the exercise and / or protection of any right and section 14 of the Constitution gives effect to the constitutional right to privacy.

For the purposes of PAIA, this manual details the procedure to be followed by a requester and the manner in which a request for access will be facilitated.

For the purposes of POPI, this manual, as read with Sim Attorneys’ detailed Privacy Policy, linked in this policy and available on Sim Attorneys’ website or at its offices or upon request to the Information Officer, details the purpose for which Personal Information may be processed; a description of the categories of Data Subjects for whom Sim Attorneys Processes Personal Information as well as the categories of Personal Information relating to such Data Subjects; and the recipients to whom Personal Information may be supplied.

Reference in this Manual to any information in addition to that specifically required in terms of Section 51 of the Act does not create any right or entitlement (contractual or otherwise) to receive such information, other than in terms of PAIA.

This manual is available for inspection, free of charge, at the physical address of Sim Attorneys and its website.
